DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

A copy of an operator's manual was not found in the present application or its parent. Accordingly, the citation on the 1449 was lined through.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the third device port and the second flexible flow valve must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 12, 13 and 17-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Zinnanti. The reference discloses a manifold (12), suction port (68), first device port (32), second device port (34) and a valve (Fig. 9). See col. 3, ll. 42-54 and col. 4.

Claims 1, 12, 13 and 17-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lopez. Lopez discloses a manifold, suction port (31), first device port, second device port and a valve. See Figs. 5-7b and col. 7.

Claims 1, 12, 13 and 17-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rouns et al. The reference discloses a manifold with a suction port (112), first device port (156), second device port (124 or 138) and a valve (142). See Fig. 1 and p. 2, col. 2

Regarding claims 17-20, it has been held that "even though product-by-process claims are limited by and defined by the process, determination of patentability is based on the product itself. The patentability of a product does not depend on its method of production. If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process." In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 698, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985) (citations omitted).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 3-11, 14-16, 21 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rouns et al as applied to claim 1 above. Rouns et al teach the invention as recited for claim 1 but do not disclose detailed features of the valve. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the claimed valve features for the purpose of directing flow, since it was known in the art that any common valve in various positions would direct the flow as desired.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Wendt et al teach a suction adaptor having a suction port, first device port and a second device port.
